

The SIG Discussion Forums

NAON's SIG discussion forums are a great way to discuss practice issues and network with nurse colleagues practicing, or interested in, the same specialty. Utilize your NAON Network!

To participate in all of the NAON Discussion Forums, you need to be a NAON member and logged in as a NAON member. If you are not a NAON member, you will only have access to a limited number of the Discussion Forums.

Getting started:

- To join, go to www.orthonurse.org
- Click on NAON Resources > Discussion Forums
- Make sure you are logged in with your Username & Password (for members only)
- Accept the disclaimer and proceed

Once you are logged in, you can

- read what any group is talking about
- jump in on the conversations
- set up an alert for when a new topic starts in one of the forums
- set up an RSS feed to the discussion for your GoogleReader or other aggregator

How to use the discussion forums:

- After you accept the disclaimer you will be brought to the Discussion Forum main page. Here you will see all of the SIG discussion forums listed.

The screenshot displays the 'Discussion Forums' page for NAON. At the top, there are navigation links: 'Unanswered', 'Not Read', 'My Topics', 'Active Topics', 'Forums', 'My Profile', 'Search', and 'Members'. Below this is a blue header for 'NAON Forums' with a download icon. The main content is a table listing various SIGs. Each row includes a folder icon, the SIG name, a description, the number of topics and replies, and the title and author of the last post along with the date and time.
